

Gardening as beast

To sacrifice the garden, or shrine you create, it's important to choose plants that have a medical effect. Since the pure evil is the guy that is in ,need' of retrieving gold/money/... to let you cure. So you choose a spot, that is completely desolate, or seems to be. The high festive period to handle your plants are dates, that have the 666 as a ,base'. If you are born on a day, that's forming a palindrome, you also have to look out for these days, as the rewards you get are higher, than on usual ,666-days'. Important is, that there is always a way to calculate a 666 from the date you are caring about the plants.

Important to create a shrine/forest/... as a beast, is, that you have the 666 twice in your birthdate on a way that is reasonable. Twice ,none' for example is not reasonable.

Choose a God*ess, you are in need of, for progressing in your life, and choose a demon, or another being, that should be used as a slave for your shrine. Cultivate the plants the way, the sigil of the demon or angel is visible in any way.

As you create an own cult, while gardening, you are the priest*ess, and are required to christen the plants. If they are tall enough, you also can cut them, as written above, it should be on a highly feast day.

Reasonable birthdates that represent the 666 twice(no one ,names' the century):

Procedure for harvesting:

hold the plant/herb with your left hand, and cut it with the right hand. As it should be normal for you to write with your left hand, and cut/... with your right hand, but for example play soccer with your left foot.

This way, your energy is filling up the herb/plant and the circle will be aborted if you cut with your right hand, so the herb/plant is still filling up until you put it away.

Consuming the herb/plant/... will take part right-handed.
